

BIBLE READING HIGHLIGHTS

When I started journaling what God spoke to me through His Word, the Bible became alive for me. No longer did I “walk away, forgetting what I saw,” the Word was actually changing me as I applied it to my own life. Here’s what I do:

1. Do your Bible reading and marking each day, choosing a time that works best for you then sticking to it.
2. Read a portion of Scripture until something sticks out to you, then meditate on that.
3. Instead of reading 2 or 3 chapters a day, reading smaller portions, like one chapter, then go back and find one or two verses to meditate on. It doesn’t have to be an outstanding thought, just one that interests or helps you.
4. Fill in your Bible Reading Highlights this way:

Date: _____ Portion I read today: _____

Best thing I marked today: Reference: _____

Verse: _____

How it impressed me: _____
