BUCKET LIST

“When you fail to plan, you plan to fail...”

That’s what the experts say – so here’s a worksheet to help you make the most of summer! Just follow these instructions:

- On the back of this sheet, make two columns labeled “Personal Activities” and “Family Activities.” Brainstorm the things you’d like to do this summer in these categories.
- After you’ve listed the things you’d like to do in each category, go back and rate their importance: #1 - very important, #2 - important, and #3 - not that important)

Now, write the activities you marked with a #1 or #2 in each category:

PERSONAL ACTIVITIES rating a #1

Rating a #2

[Go back and prioritize your #1 personal activities from 1-4]

FAMILY ACTIVITIES rating a #1

Rating a #2

[Go back and prioritize your #1 family activities from 1-4]
